

WATCH US GROW

James Guild Company

HELP US GROW

The Most Popular

House Furnishing Store in Honolulu
Free daily delivery in all parts of the city

Telephone 3591

King Street near Fort Street

A very pretty quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Andrew's Saturday evening, when Miss Annabel Low and Mr. Albert Ruddle were united in marriage by the Rev. Leopold Kroll. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white satin, and a lace veil caught with orange blossoms. Contrary to the usual custom, Miss Low carried an ivory prayerbook instead of the bridal bouquet. She was given into the bridegroom's keeping by her father, Mr. Eben Low, and Miss Coral Low acted as maid of honor, while Miss Clorinda Low and Miss Laura Low were the bridesmaids. The maid of honor and the bridesmaids wore tulle bonnets and pretty kowns of French confection. They carried bouquets of pink roses. The groom was supported by Mr. George Kluegel, and the ushers were Mr. Charles Stillman and Mr. Percy Deverill. Mrs. Ruddle, who is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Low, graduated from Oahu College three years ago, and after completing a course at the Normal School received an appointment to a school on Hawaii, where she met Mr. Ruddle, who holds an important position with the Volcano Station. Mr. and Mrs. Ruddle will leave in the Mauna Kea on Wednesday for Hilo, where they will make their home.

Dinner for Mr. Hackfeld.

Mr. John F. Hackfeld was guest of honor at an elaborately appointed dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell on Saturday evening at their home on Beretania avenue. The diningroom was done in red and yellow, with red carnations and yellow coreopsis. Just over the center of the table hung a large flower-filled basket suspended from the ceiling, with harmonizing shades of tulle and streamers of tulle entwined with green vines were festooned from the chandelier and the ceiling. Cut-glass vases filled with flowers were arranged on the table, and fifty hand-painted cards marked the place of each guest. Covers were laid for Mr. John F. Hackfeld, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, Mr. and Mrs. Kiebah, Miss Agnes Walker, Miss Cordelia Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Antone Cropp, Mr. and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Mr. Wilder, Mr. Georg Rodick and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Rietow's Dance.

Miss Ynez Gibson was the guest of honor at a dance on Friday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker Rietow at their Kaimuki bungalow. The affair was delightfully informal, and even at a late hour the guests were reluctant to leave. The guests included Miss Ynez Gibson, Miss Katherine Paris, Miss Katherine Kerr, Miss Emily Cooke, Miss Ruth Stacker, Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Gertrude Ripley, Miss Alice Hendry, Miss Rachel Wood, Miss Lillian McChesney, Mr. Ralph Girdler, Mr. Platt Cooke, Mr. Archie Campbell, Mr. Marston Campbell, Mr. George Damon, Mr. Roy Pook, Mr.

Arthur Hough, Mr. Frank Winter, Mr. Malcolm Tuttle, Mr. Robert Hendry and Mr. Jay Kelley.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Swanzy entertained at luncheon at Haleiwa yesterday. Covers were laid for twelve.

Miss Anna Johnson was the guest of honor at a luncheon on Saturday at which Mrs. G. F. Bush was hostess. The centerpiece for the table was of yellow coreopsis. Covers were laid for ten, including Miss Anna Johnson, Miss Bingham of Los Angeles, Miss McKenzie, Mrs. A. J. Gignoux, Mrs. Marston Campbell, Mrs. Frank Blake, Mrs. F. S. Lyser, Mrs. Philip Frear, Mrs. George Sackabury and Mrs. Bush.

Swimming Party.

Miss Ruth Anderson was hostess at a most enjoyable swimming party at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Alexander Young, on Saturday afternoon for Miss Juliette Atwater, Miss Daphne Damon and Miss Pauline Schaefer. After spending the greater part of the afternoon in the water, delightful refreshments were served. Miss Anderson's guests included Miss Juliette Atwater, Miss Daphne Damon, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Zeph Pischell, Miss Alice Hoogs, Miss Margaret Hind, Miss Mona Hind, Miss Eva Hind, Miss Maud Hind, Miss Dorothy Wood, Miss Rose Herbert, Miss Margaret Center, Miss Helen McLain, Miss Helen Jones, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Hazel Buck, and Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Margaret Restarick, Miss Helen Spaulding, Miss Flore Wickman, Miss Thelma Murphy and Miss Myrtle Schuman.

Letters have been received from Miss Dorothy Guild containing the news of her safe arrival in Sausalito, California, where she will spend the summer. When she returns to Honolulu in September, Miss Guild will bring with her Miss Helen Coulter of Sausalito. Miss Coulter will remain here during the winter months.

Judge and Mrs. Antonio Perry motored around the island yesterday with a party of guests, stopping at Haleiwa for luncheon. Judge and Mrs. Perry's guests included Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bryan, Mr. Frederick Biggerstaff and Mr. William Chamberlain.

Mr. and Mrs. Templeton Crocker are enthusiastic over the many gayeties which they enjoyed during their stay in Honolulu. One of the largest affairs given for them was a farewell several days before they sailed for San Francisco by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tenney. It was a tennis tea, and after several games of tennis on the Tenney courts tea was served at small tables on the lawn. Miss Wilhelmina Tenney assisted her parents in receiving, and many Honolulu society people and their friends were present. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. William G. fifteen.

Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilder, Mrs. George Lacy Spaulding, Miss Lady Macfarlane, Harry Macfarlane and Lieutenant Vaughan.—S. F. Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Marston Campbell, entertained at a chowder supper at Kalahele on Saturday evening on the occasion of the twenty-first anniversary of their wedding. Covers were laid for fifteen.

Concentration Is Good for Every Business

This Is the Only Exclusive Paper House
In the Territory

PAPER

Of Every Description

American-Hawaiian Paper & Supply Co.

Corner Fort and Queen Streets

GEO. G. GUILD

President and Manager

LIKE THE STAR AND BULLETIN

We Have Consolidated

FOR THE BETTERMENT OF SERVICE

THE PACIFIC ELECTRIC CO.

And

THE HONOLULU ELECTRIC CO.

Is Now

THE Honolulu Electric Co.

Electrical Engineering and Equipment

Emmeluth Building

Corner King and Bishop Street